

DIVERSITY POLICY

MIGHTY CRAFT LIMITED

("Company")

1. Scope

This diversity policy ("Policy") applies to the Company's board of directors ("Board"), officers and employees ("Personnel").

2. Purpose

The Company has a strong commitment to diversity and recognises the value of attracting and retaining Personnel with different backgrounds, knowledge, experiences and abilities. The Company recognises that diversity not only encompasses gender but extends to age, ethnicity, religious beliefs, cultural background, language, marital or family status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, socio-economic background, perspective and experience. Diversity contributes to the Company's business success and benefits individuals, clients, teams, shareholders and stakeholders.

Our business policies, practices and behaviours promote diversity and equal opportunity and create an environment where individual differences are valued and all Personnel have the opportunity to realise their potential and contribute to the Company's success.

3. What is Diversity?

Diversity recognises and values the contribution of people with differences in background, experience and perspectives. At the Company, diversity means:

- an inclusive workplace that embraces individual differences;
- a workplace that is free from discriminatory behaviours and business practices including discrimination, harassment, bullying, victimisation and vilification;
- equitable frameworks and policies, processes and practices that limit potential unconscious bias;
- equal employment opportunities based on capability and performance;
- awareness of the different needs of employees;
- the provision of flexible work practices and policies to support employees; and
- attraction and retention of a diverse range of talented people.

The Company aspires to achieve the objectives set out in this Policy and aims to embed a strong diversity framework within its systems and culture.

4. Board's Responsibilities

The Board is responsible for designing and overseeing the implementation of this Policy.

The directors of the Company will be responsible for promoting diversity within the Company's culture and monitoring the effectiveness of this Policy. The Company recognises that it needs to provide management with appropriate guidance in order to foster a value for diversity within its management culture. To achieve this, the Company is committed to providing its management with the appropriate training and resources to understand the benefits of diversity in recruitment strategies and day-to-day management strategies. The Board will also be required to develop initiatives that will promote and achieve diversity goals.

5. Remuneration and Nomination Committee's Responsibilities

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee (if any) is responsible for reviewing this Policy and will provide the Board with an annual report on the status of diversity within the Company and the effectiveness of the measurable objectives, in relation to each reporting period, for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its Board, management and employees generally.

6. Personnel's Responsibilities

All Personnel are required to act in a manner that supports diversity within the workplace and promotes the objectives set out in this Policy. Employees are encouraged to provide feedback to management regarding programs or initiatives which will improve the Company's approach to diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

7. Measurable Objectives

The Company recognises that all facets of diversity amongst its Personnel:

- broadens the pool of high-quality directors, management and employees generally;
- is likely to support employee retention;
- is likely to encourage greater innovation by drawing on different perspectives;
- avoids "groupthink" or other cognitive biases in decision making;
- is a socially and economically responsible governance practice; and
- will improve the Company's corporate reputation.

Subject to the size and operations of the Company, the Board commits to designing and implementing measurable objectives to assist the Company to achieve gender diversity and review the Company's progress in meeting these objectives and the effectiveness of these objectives each reporting period.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee (if applicable) is responsible for:

- recommending such measurable objectives to the Board in light of the Company's general selection policy for Personnel; and
- reporting to the Board on the Company's progress towards achieving its measurable objectives reporting period. This report will include a review of the relative proportions of men and women at all levels in the organisation.

8. Review of the Policy

This Policy will be reviewed periodically by the Board to check the effectiveness of the Company's measurable objectives during that reporting period and whether any changes are required to this Policy.
